Halloween disco Friday 18th October 5.00—7.15 pm

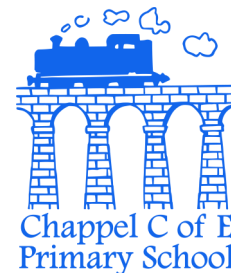

God in heaven up above,
I thank You for the things I love:
flowers, plants and all the trees and sweet honey from the bees.
I love the animals You made and every park where I have played.
I love my friends and family and I thank You for loving me.

GOLD AWARDS

Class 1 Huddy for his fantastic attitude in our phonic sessions and for following instructions so well all week.

Class2 Jake for working hard in his writing and taking on board what he has been told and Maya for always being ready to learn and for coming bravely into school with a big smile on her face.

Class 3 Reggie for super work and focus in maths and Maximus for super work and helping his peers.

Class 4 George J for having a superb work ethic and always contributing insightful ideas to the class and Gracie for always being ready to learn, keen to do her work and try her best.

This Week in School

Preparations have been underway for the Harvest Festival, with beautiful singing being heard around the school. The Harvest Festival is on Monday in the Church at 9.30 am, everyone is welcome.

The weather has turned chillier this week, please ensure that your children have jumpers, cardigans and warm coats in school.

“Chappel Chatter” is running another competition to design your own monster, using any medium, please bring any entries to Edward and Ava by the last day of this half term, 25th October.

REMINDER

Parents of children due to start school in September 2025 are now warmly welcomed to come and look around the school as a potential school for their child. Please let any friends or family know.
